4. Events in Rome

Please put the following notice in parish bulletins:

A special webpage for the current transition in the Holy See is now operating on the CCCB website. It can be accessed from the home page www.cccb.ca by following the link to the English page and clicking on the banner "Sede vacante". The title of the banner will change over the coming days to become "Conclave 2013" and then immediately following the news of the election "Habemus Papam". Its content already includes a section on the resignation of Benedict XVI as well as links to media coverage. A section on the new pope will be added as soon as possible after his election.
