

You won't want to miss the 19th annual Diocesan Youth Conference, April 25-27! Secure your spot today by registering online, picking up a registration form at your local parish office, or downloading a form from our website www.pgdiocese.bc.ca (click on the youth section).

What is DYC?

DYC is our annual Diocesan Youth Conference. It is a packed weekend of dynamic talks, workshops, games all culminating in a closing mass together. There will also be adoration, amazing praise & worship, and a coffeehouse featuring artists from across our diocese as part of an evening celebration. This year, our theme is 'Catching Fire' based on the the scripture passage of the Road to Emmaus. We hope young people will leave on fire for our Lord.

When & where is DYC 2014?

Doors open Friday April 25 @6pm and the last session ends @1pm Sunday April 27. It is all taking place at the Diocesan Centre, 6500 Southridge, Prince George (map on back on pamphlet).

How much does it cost to attend?

EARLY-BIRD REGISTRATION:

$35 before/on April 1, 2014

After April 1, the registration fee is $50.

Meet this year's keynote speaker, Ken Yasinski

Ken Yasinski is the founder of FacetoFace Ministries. Speaking since 1999, he has become one of Canada's most sought after Catholic speakers giving over 150 presentations a year. Through his gift of communicating, his audience is captivated by the love of Christ and His Church. Ken has spoken for conferences, rallies, parish missions, schools, and retreats to youth and adults across Canada and internationally. At the core of every message Ken challenges people to realize their full potential in life: to become a saint. Ken also produces talks through Lighthouse Catholic Media.

Come & Celebrate not 1, but 2 saints being canonized! We will be celebrating in style with live feed from the Vatican of Blessed John Paul II & John XXIII
