

Diocese of Prince George

Liturgy & Sacred Music Workshop

For Pastors, Pastoral Life Directors, musicians choir members, Liturgy Committee members and all parishioners

on

October 28 @ 7:00 pm—8:30 pm
October 29, 2016 @ 9:00 am—4:00 pm

at

Diocesan Pastoral Centre
6500 Southridge Avenue, Prince George, BC

Miss Elizabeth Black
Musician, conductress
and professional singer (US), pursuing Masters in Liturgy at The Liturgical Institute, Mundelein, Illinois.

“Liturgical worship is given a more noble form when it is celebrated in song...”

Musicam Sacram, No.5

Fr. Rectorino Tolentino, Jr.
Chairperson,
Liturgy Commission
Diocese of Prince
George, pursuing Masters in Liturgy at The Liturgical Institute,
Mundelein, Illinois.

The workshop will lead participants in the following:

- ♪ Instruction on Sacred Music in the Liturgy
- ♪ Liturgical Chant
- ♪ New musical setting for use in the diocese
- ♪ New resources for Liturgy and music

To register: email Teresa Phillippe at reception@pgdiocese.bc.ca or online at <http://www.pgdiocese.bc.ca/registration-form/>

This event is being organized by the Liturgy Commission of the Diocese of Prince George and subsidized by the Annual Diocesan Appeal. There is NO FEE for the workshop but lunch will be provided for $12.00 per person.