3. A FRAMEWORK FOR PALLIATIVE CARE

Health Canada has initiated a public consultation to collect input and ideas for the purpose of developing a framework on palliative care.

This consultation will run for three months from May to July, 2018.

During this time themes like: advance care planning, person and family-centred care, access issues, special populations, health care provider training and supports, caregiver needs, and community engagement will be initiated.

For more details go to: <https://www.letstalkhealth.ca/palliativecare/faqs#2918>

To participate in discussion please register at: <https://www.letstalkhealth.ca/register>

In your response please emphasize:

- the importance of the spiritual care dimension
- that palliative care does not include euthanasia or assisted suicide
