Keynote Presenters

Rev. Dr. Dave Overholt is the founding pastor of Church on the Rock, one the largest and longest running youth targeted churches in North America. In addition to 35 years in ministry, Dave has a doctorate in philosophy of education from University of Toronto. Dave heads up the youth and family department at Tyndale Seminary. Dave's books include: Reasons to Believe, Soul Searching the Millennial Generation and Transfusing Life. Dave also speaks "on the road" to thousands of pastors and students each year across North America.

Iona Snair has been involved in the lives of vulnerable young people and the adults who care about them for over 30 years. As a youth worker, foster parent, college instructor and parent, Iona has created spaces of hospitality and growth for many. She and her husband Rob have spent the last 18 years equipping the next generation of youth workers through an innovative program of Youth Unlimited's called Lifeteams School of Youth Outreach. Iona is a speaker and trainer, preparing parents, volunteers and youth work professionals to compassionately enter into the difficult issues young people face. She holds a Master degree from Regent College in Vancouver and lives with her family in Abbotsford, B.C.
