Requests for School Records:

The British Columbia government passed privacy legislation under the Personal Information Protection Act [PIPA 2003]. This Act includes the private sector; therefore, access to diocesan archival records must comply with the legislation.

Issuing of School Records:

School Records can only be issued to the requesting individual or to a third party with written permission from the requesting party. A signed release(s) of information must be provided with the submission of this request.

Information Provided by Records Search:

Information on School Records provided by the Diocese of Prince George reflects available records solely in its possession.

Verification of Identification:

To comply with provincial privacy legislation, we ask that requesting parties provide a paper or digital copy of one (1) piece of photo identification for verification purposes. Information collected for verification will not be kept beyond the scope of the request.
