- Carry out telemarketing to parishes, priests and adoration coordinators by making and responding to telephone calls
- Provide administrative assistance using information technology and email
- Complete assigned tasks
- Keep accurate records, submit reports, manage detailed data, log your working hours
- Learn about and promote the value of adoration and frequent or daily Holy Communion
- Perform other project work such as digitization, working on media, making videos, development/fundraising
- Make a significant and beneficial contribution to God and to society

Requirements of candidates:

- Ability to work independently with some supervision
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to serve and follow instructions
- Be trustworthy, able to maintain confidentiality
- Display moral integrity based on Catholic-Christian virtues
- Be respectful, reverent, well-mannered, persevering
- Exhibit love for God and the purpose of this mission
- Pleasant, charitable personality
- Ability to use your own computer, Internet and telephone with Canada-wide long-distance plan
- Maximum of 30 years of age on start date; Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act for the duration of the employment; and, have a valid Social Insurance Number at the start of employment and be legally entitled to work in Canada
- Being bilingual in Canada's two official languages is not a requirement, but would be helpful.

How to apply:

Submit a cover letter noting the name and city of the parish you belong to plus a resume to info@eucharisticadorationcanada.com, inserting "Summer Job" into the subject line. We thank all those interested. Due to volume, only candidates who will be interviewed will be contacted.
