Called Together Diocesan Annual Appeal

The appeal update is attached to this week's Wednesday Weekly. There has been little change since our last update in April other than St. Joseph's in Smithers that added 8% to their portion of the diocesan total. We thank all of you for your support of the appeal throughout this year.

We're currently just under 85% of our goal with one month to go until the appeal year ends. Updates will continue on a monthly basis until the fall.

From the CCCB – A Note on Prayer

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has released "A Note on Prayer," a document providing a brief introduction to what prayer is and introduces a set of recent resources on the topic which were compiled by the CCCB Ad hoc committee for the Preparation of the Jubilee.

You can find the resource attached to this week's Wednesday Weekly.

Oblate Kenyan Mission Celebrates 28th Anniversary

The Missionary Oblates were central to the building of the Church in the Prince George Diocese. They ministered in every corner of this Diocese before it was ever erected as a Diocese. The Oblates invite you to support through your prayers and financial partnership the new growth in their mission in Kenya. The Oblates were pleased to celebrate the ordination of three Kenyans to the priesthood and one to the order of Diaconate, in March 2025.

They are seeking partners who walk with them sharing in the mission together. Pope Francis, in his encyclical “Fratelli Tutti” (Brothers and Sisters All) speaks of solidarity with the poor and marginalized in our world. He states that “Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community.” It is an invitation to invite someone to figuratively sit at our family table every day through a pledge we make to share what means we have. There are no administration fees, as the Oblates themselves cover these costs. Every cent of every dollar you give goes directly to the missions’ projects.
