Called Together Diocesan Appeal Update

We are pleased to report that we have reached 60% of our diocesan goal with almost $180,000 raised and another $10,000 being returned to parishes. We hope that we'll be able to reach our overall diocesan goal of $300,000 this year and the total goal of $378,805 which includes parish project goals. These funds are critically important to many of our smaller parishes, missions and ministries throughout the diocese, and we are happy to see this support provided by your financial help.

To date, five parishes have already reached their part of the diocesan goal: St. Patrick's in McBride at 165%, St. Anthony's in Houston at 127%, St. Mary's in Prince George at 126%, Annunciation Parish in Prince Rupert at almost 106%, and St. Andrew's in Fraser Lake at over 104%. Well done, all of you.

We seem to still be receiving mail that had been delayed during the larger strike action at Canada Post. Please be aware that we are processing donations as soon as they arrive, but some are coming in quite some time after they were sent. More came in this morning, but too late to be included in this week's report.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to the appeal so far, both financially and through your prayers. If you haven't yet contributed, we would ask you to consider supporting these communities. Most importantly, please ensure that you remember the many needs of the diocese in your prayers, most especially at Mass.
